Make a contract with your higher self...

I, _____, commit and agree to show up every day as my best self in my quest to create the life of my dreams. I hereby commit to doing whatever it takes with integrity, empathy and fun, to achieve greatness in my business and my life. I will add value to people's lives, always attempting to leave people better than I found them. Those I meet who are ready for this journey, I will courageously take them with me. I understand that my vision is going to be reached one day at a time, with each step helping me to grow into the person I'm meant to become. I will only settle for achieving the life of my dreams. I will not compromise. I have the power. I have the knowledge, and I have what it takes to ACHIEVE GREATNESS.
